“ Today marks the 2nd year anniversary that you have left this earth. I can still recall this very day at the hospital was the saddest day of my life only because I will miss the physical contact with you but as I have hope that we will meet again I can take comfort in Psalm 30:5 "weeping may remain for a night, but Joy will come in the morning..." So I will be looking forward to that blessed morning when I shall see you again. For now I'll be seeing you in my dreams... Loving you forever more... Your Daughter Tiva...

We still feel the emptiness without you here but we take heart knowing that we will see each other again on the "Other Side". “ MORE THAN A MOTHER

When God set the world in place,
when He hung the stars up in space,

when He made the land and the sea,
then He made you and me.

He sat back and saw all that was good,
He saw things to be as they should.
Just one more blessing He had in store;
He created a mother, but whatever for?

He knew a mother would have a special place
to shine His reflection on her child's face.
A mother will walk the extra mile just to see her children smile.
She'll work her fingers to the bone
to make a house into a home.

A mother is there to teach and guide,
a mother will stay right by your side.
She'll be there through your pain and strife,
she'll stay constant in your life.

A mother will lend a helping hand
until you have the strength to stand.
She'll pick you up when you are down,
when you need a friend she'll stick around.

A mother is one who listens well,
will keep her word; will never tell.

A mother never pokes or pries
but stands quietly by your side, giving you the strength you need,
encouraging you to succeed.

A mother is one who can be strong when you need someone to lean on.

You're more than a mother to me;
a reflection of Him in your face I see,
a love that knows no boundaries.

I'm glad that you chose to be all this and more to me.
You share a love that knows no end,
you're more than my mother,
you are my friend.

“ We are counting down the days to your 1st year memorial and I still can't get over the fact that you're gone. I miss you constantly but when I find myself feeling down and missing you more, I would always reflect back on the Happy Times and the wonderful memories that we had. Now I understand how you were toward us growing up because I find myself feeling the same way towards my daughters. I will forever be thankful that I had such a Blessed Mom who was always "2Blessed 2B Stressed." Until we meet again, I'll be forever missing you... Love you always.

“ We stand here together as a family we join hands together lifting Praises to The Father above for sending his Son, we chosen together as a family to serve Him forever knowing nothing else would matter in time, we made up our minds. Through the heat of the day we will join in the fight, till he takes us away till our faith becomes sight as for me and my house we will serve the Lord.

“ If flowers grow in heaven,
Lord, then pick a bunch for me.
Then place them in my mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her
and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.

“ Dear family, Your Mom will truly be missed, and when you think of her please keep close to your hearts and minds these wonderful promises of our future: " And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. " Acts 24:15. " The righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it. " Psalms 37:29. Jehovah God truly cares and gives us comfort from the Bible, life again for those who have fallen asleep in death, John 11:11,39-44, with freedom from illness, old age and death. And what a happy time this will be. You can read more about these promises in the Bible at www.jw.org

“ Tetris was her game,
Lilieni is her name.
Love is what she gave,
Mantha & Lily was her fave.
Grandma to my cousins,
Aunty to my youngin's.
Smiles were her gift,
But her laughter I will miss.
You were in pain,
So God called your name.
We love and miss you,
But we know God got you.
Ia Manuia lou malaga,
Aunty Lily.

“ Grandma smiled like it was going out of style. She loved me in a way that only a grandmother can, with kindness, tenderness and understanding. Even as I became a mother and wife and moved away from the islands, every time I returned, her love for me was so apparent, I felt like a little girl all over again. My children will know you because I will tell them all about you.

Love you and miss you Mama. See you in a few days. I always thought of you as my angel, now you really are my guardian angel <3

For her price is far above rubies"

Wait for me cause i'll see you again in time.
I know I'll see the day when I can hold you on the other side...

“ To my Dearest Mom,
I will forever be missing you. I'm sorry for not acting accordingly and going against the family but I just feel so disconnect from everyone without you here. You would always give me the courage and strength that I would always lack. You're always reassuring me when I had my doubts. Now I have no one to complain to when Taylor, Mantha or Apo get on my nerves. I miss you more than you'll ever know. There is a void in my heart that can never be filled. Even though your not here physically, I will look forward to the day when I shall see you again. I maybe loosing a Mom but I guess the Lord needed an Angel.... Loving you from Here to Eternity....

“ To My Lifeline,

The only person who understood me when I couldn't tell my mom or dad stuff, I know that I can always count on Gma Lily to help me when I got in trouble. She was always there for Me and my sister, she was a cool Gma, she would always be joking and always had the latest sunglass she would get from her cuzin Aunty Liu or one of other daughters, (not my mom, cuz she no wear shades). Gma would always call herself My Lifeline... Then I would ask her why you call yourself my lifeline, then she would say that anytime I would start to get sick she would share her antibiotics and drugs with me so that I wouldn't get sick. That is the kind of Gma she was, always thinking of others and I will miss her more that she knows but I know that she is in a better place where there is no more hurt ans sorrow.

"Ia manuia lou malaga Gma," I love you with all my heart and soul...
