“ I had the pleasure to know and call Mr. Sherman my friend as I worked at the Hickam Passenger Terminal and he worked at the USO within the terminal. He was a great person to talk with and hear his stories from his service time. I saw him every day in the terminal, working the USO desk as he helped countless travelers of the military community as they traveled thru Hawaii (both at Hickam and Honolulu IAP). Also, many are unaware that Sherman was recognized by the USO as Volunteer of the Year in 2013 for going above and beyond...see the <https://www.marines.mil/News/News-Display/Article/540102/uso-hawaii-honors-service-members-with-annual-event/>
He was a humble gentleman and did wonderful things for the USO staff, to include our Pax Terminal staff (his fellow Air Transportation Veterans) in sharing his knowledge, military history, and genuine friendship. He is gone, but not forgotten...R.I.P. Sherman.

“ It is with a saddened heart when I heard of the passing of Sherman. We volunteered at Hickam AFB USO together. We shared some crazy time there, but but he was a hard worker and knew how to fix and find things when I couldn't. Sherman was a proud man, and I could talk to him, and I listened to him when he needed someone to talk to. May God open the door to Heaven and welcome him home, where the pain is gone and he is with his buddies from Vietnam who went before him. He is a true soldier, and I am sorry for your loss. All my prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. ?
