“ I remember your mom always being courteous and friendly to us whenever we stopped at Barney's to buy a small coke with lots of ice before Japanese school or on our way home from hula. We were just kids and she still treated us with respect.

“ To my Auntie Barbara and ohana...although we are separated by an ocean, my wonderful memories of Auntie will ever remain in my heart. She was truly a very caring and loving person. Wil miss her hearty laugh and that anticipated slap when I get through teasing her. Mahala pono, malama ke kina a me kealoha pumehana my ohana.
