“ I met Ernie in 1979 when he was a sophomore at Marist Brothers High School in Maleloa, Americans Samoa. I was teaching 10th grade chemistry, and he was one of the best students in the class. He was quiet and serious. He sat in the back row, but he would offer a shy grin if I could catch his eye. He went on a hike with a small group of us up to Mt. Alava. He played on the school's football team. The school's math teacher, the late Ms. Judy Mulvey, knew of Ernie's intellect. In 2011, while I was working in the emergency dept. at LBJ, Ernie showed up for a surprise visit. He was happy as I never knew him to be. Until then, I had known him as Ernest Porter. We went to eat soon thereafter and it was delightful to get acquainted with such a kind and outgoing Ernie. May God bless your soul, Ernie, as I know Our Lord already has and may Christ ever watch over your family. May we all be inspired by the people like Ernie in our lives who work hard and share life's goodness with others.

“ Ernie was a wonderful student, mentee and colleague of mine. He was a very good physician to his patients, and a great teacher to his students. He cared greatly about his family and community. His passing is a big loss to all whose life he touched.

To my dearest niece, Dr Mavis Alaimalo and her boys; I was so deeply saddened to hear of your dear husband's passing, Dr Earnest Alaimalo. I know that words are inadequate at a time like this but I wanted you to know how very sorry I am with my two children and my four grandchildren for your loss. The loss of a spouse is a tragic event and I know the pain and suffering you are experiencing.

It is times like this that our faith is put to the test. We know that we must accept his passing and give thanks for the wonderful life he lived. As sad as it will be, we will always have the memory of him to hold in our hearts.

The Bible reminds us that "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted." I pray for you my niece and your sons that this will be especially true as you mourn your loss.

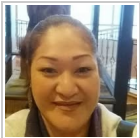

I will also pray that God will give you and your boys the strength to get through this sad and difficult time. My thoughts and prayers will be with you and I LOVE you, aunt Tila Carter 🙏❤️.

“ It was quite embarrassing but I always got his name wrong....calling him Ed or Eddie all the time. He's so gracious forgiving me everytime by teasing me relentlessly about it because I always felt horrible about it afterwards. It was only recently that I actually started getting his name right. You will be greatly missed! My deepest & sincerest condolences to my cousin Mavis & the boys as well as his family. Alofa atu, Bea Fruean Tote

“ It's because of football that our paths crossed. I miss chatting with you during the games, even if it's work related or our gripes about TAMC. You always had nice things to say about Trent. Your tight hugs always knocked my breath away lol. You have a gentle aura in you with a kind heart. We miss you so much...we love you brother...until we meet again...
