“ Hey isi,
Been thinking about you... It's been a long spiritual journey for me and I'm finally starting to head in the direction I always knew I would at some point. It's been nothing but lessons but in grateful for it all. I miss you. Now I know what I really need To work towards is your ordinances and brother I'm sorry for making you wait it should've been done as soon as you were of age. I love you and I'm on the road to getting it done. Be with me when I do, I love you 100”

“ Hey Isi,

Thank you for taking care of mommy❤️ I was so scared to lose another one, but I'm so grateful mommy is alive. It hurts so much to see everything we've built as a family just thrown away like that. Its my fault for not being enough😔. Imma keep on pushing for the family though Isi. I'm looking forward to the baby on the way❤️ So many things to live for so I'll just take the L's and keep working on building the family. I wish you were here to meet seini and the baby that's coming. You will eventually tho. As for teti, visit his dreams Isi. Give him something to work towards and change his heart. Our family will never be the same again, but we'll make the best out of the situation. I love you isi❤️ If the baby is a boy, it'll be blessed to be named after you brother❤️ Ofa atu Isi❤️❤️❤️

Your anniversary was so hard, Maria and Ang and Ang's boyfriend Micah went to visit you and Mema for us. The day after your anniversary, the 24th was soooooo hard for me this year bc it was the first day of our new harsh reality: life without you physically here. I almost couldn't stop sobbing. “ Hey Isi, it's me again, Elder Tokotaha. I was thinking about you last night. I really miss you. As I was giving a blessing to a sick Elder, I thought of you and what I would have blessed you with if I had the chance. As I was giving the blessing, the main thing that I thought of blessing him with was peace. I remember how sad and down I was after you passed away and how I wish I could receive peace in my life. It was a long process but it worked out in the end. I'm happy that I am out on a mission, serving the people of PNG. I'm not the best missionary, nor am I anywhere near perfect, but I am learning, and it's because of you. You helped me open my eyes and see what are the real things that I need to cherish in life. God and Family. I think about you everyday, and I feel empty a lot. I just hope to be able to fulfill all the dreams and achievements that you aren't able to fulfill. A lot of expectations and it's stressing me out, but I gotta do it for the both of us. 'Ofa Atu.

“ Isi, it's me, Elder Tokotaha again, just wanted to drop by and say Happy Birthday to you. Today would've been your 16th birthday today. It's been about 4 years now since you've been gone, but I still think about you everyday. Hope you think about the family too. I hope you are doing well in the afterlife, I hope you met grandma lia and mema. I love you so much. Sorry for all the wrongs I've done to you, I know its late for sorries, way overdue but the guilt still lives within me. I've learned to appreciate people more because of you. Time is short and we gotta cherish the ones we share with our loved ones. I'm far from perfect and I have a long way to go and tons of things I need to change. I just hope by the time we meet again, you'll be able to see the change in me. Anyways, for your birthday I'll call the family back home. I know we're receiving tons of blessings from Heavenly Father. That's why Im on a mission, to pay back our Father in Heaven. Anyways, I love you.

I know that Im never alone out here, youre with me in spirit. So much kids remind me of you cause they run around the streets without slippers hahahaha. I love you lil brodie. Ofaz, Elder Tokotaha.*

Why should I do this, Why should I do that. Cause of you, I gotta live for the both of us. I make so much dumb decisions and I get lost often, but just know you're the reason why I get back on track and why I keep pushin for more. Ofa Atu Isi* ❤️

Thats why i HAD to complete mine, for you. I did 8 badges in one month AND my project in that same month. It's crazy but ik if i didn't get it, you'd be sad. “ Isi💙 i miss you so much❤️ life is hard and it's getting to your favorite time of the year. Halloween😭. Toy were always the first one to be ready when we go out and it didn't matter how unprepared your costume was😭, you just wanted candy. I was always the first one to ask you for candy when i didn't go😭and you was always irritated with it. Got to the point where we argued about it but before the night ended you always offered me candy out of pity😭. I'm so sad now, but life goes on. I still remember all our missions together, and how I'd always boss you around😭. I hope you know i will always hold it down for you because you're my brother and no one could replace you in my heart. No one. If I had the chance, I'd switch places with you, but things just don't go out the way we plan. I hope you know i still love you and i haven't forgotten you at all😭. I love you Isi💙

“ Isi I miss you so much, I can't believe it's six months now. Sometimes I look up to the sky and wonder if you're looking down at me. I hope you are. Life is still moving, but imma keep holding on to you. I haven't forgotten anything that we've done, and I swear I'd be way more happier rn if you were still here. Seeing all your friends still waking around hurts me because I always am about to ask them where you are but then I remember that you're gone. I wish we could trade places. Just please try and talk to me once, or visit me in a dream. Sometimes I look at sialekafoa and I see you in him, then I begin to hug him as if he were you. When I yell at him, he does the same thing you do and talk back, and I just laugh then become a little sad. I miss you so much, but every day that passes is a day closer to me seeing you again. 💜 love you toko

“ I remember I met you because you asked me if I was Tongan . From that day on we were so close. You were a big brother to me & always watched out for me & my other little sisters. I remember everything you had you shared with me. Whether it was a candy bar or food you shared it with me. You put all the boys in check & you know I had to do the same to them girls lol. I remember when my mom would always say "Pele? Remember to bring Isi some okay?" My momma loved you & just how you tend to put a smile on her face. We had the best memories when we had basketball, now joining the team this year sucks because your in inters. I remember the week before you left, you were with us at basketball practice. You hugged me & said its been awhile since we seen each other 😞. I hate how now I don't see you anymore. I hate how when anyone talks about you I sit there & cry. I hate when my little siblings ask "Pele? When is Isi coming to school" or "Pele remember to bring a snack for Isi . Everything seem so different. It feels weird not having you around to play with or to joke around with or to put a smile on my face like you always do. Like my sister said "It's not a goodbye but a see you later. . You will forever live on in my heart Isi. Send my love to my big brother up there. Love & miss you Isileli Fifita Tokotaha Jr. 🙏🥺💙

I just don't feel the same without you and everyday when I come home I wish you could just pop out of your room and start making loud noises like before. Everywhere I go and whenever I do something that we used to do together I automatically think of something you would do or say and for a moment I can see you there with me! It makes me so sad and still shocked to know that I won't be able to see you for the rest of this physical lifetime that we live but I am excited to be greeted by you in the next life to come.
