“ She is the Best that this industry has, a Lady of extreme kindness and grace, I thank you for all your teachings and wisdom, and as you said never be afraid to use your best talents in all you do. today I can stand and say I had the best teacher and mentor anyone could have asked for. Today you are with Our Heavenly Father, A well deserved rest and reward. your kindness will live on not only with my self but all who's lives were touched by you. I am forever grateful to you and David. and as long as Leeward Funeral Home is operating I will always be there ..
