“ My heart is saddened and filled w/ sorrow to not have had the opportunity to get to know my little sister w/ the same name as me. We shared the same dad but not the same memories. I was 16 years old when she was born and in 3 short years I would marry, have a daughter and son and then move to Hilo in 1978. I saw her once when she was a little girl and then would be reunited when our dad passed away. Coulda, shoulda, woulda- but now she lives in heaven with our Heavenly Father and flies with angels. For this, I am happy for her and grateful to our Lord. Love you, Honolulu Malia, from Hilo Malia! Ke Akua pu a hui hou kakou! God be with you till we meet again.

“ I am sorry for the family's loss. Please take comfort in the promise of the resurrection mentioned in the Bible at Isaiah 25:8.
