“ I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your loved. It certainly sounds like there are so many that will miss him. I hope that your family experiences peace from God at this time. His Word, the Bible, gives us a wonderful hope, namely, the prospect of living in a paradise on earth and seeing the resurrection of our dead loved ones.

Please read the information on the link below to find out that we can rely on this promise that God has made.

*Sincerely,
D. Villegas*

“ I'm so terribly sorry for your loss. Death is something that humans were never meant to experience, the pain that we experience when we lose a loved one is something that is simply unnatural. Psalms 37:29 says 29 "The righteous will possess the earth, And they will live forever on it." God's original purpose for humankind was to live forever in a paradise earth with no sickness or death. An "abundance of peace" as psalms 37:10 brings out. Though the world we love in is horrible and we experience pain on a daily basis there is some good news, the bible promises something truly amazing at revelation 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more,neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So death, sickness, pain and every kind of sorrow will be wiped out but what about those who have already died? John 5:28,29 says of those ones "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." So these ones will be resurrected to an earth filled with peace. For more information on this subject please visit www.jw.org and fill out the online request for a free bible study. Bobo, you were just a young man about 19yrs old when I met you. Your cousin Dottie and I were BFFs. You were always funny and sweet. Through many years we were friends. Once a long time ago, when I moved, I asked you if you wanted my large round brass tray and you were so excited! I didn't have room for it and you really liked it. And you always kept it in your house after that. Thank you for helping us paint our house. And thank you for teaching me the 'professional' way to paint! Though you left this world too soon, you are no longer in pain. So, rest easy and may God give you peace, Bobo. We will never forget your jehri curls or your big smile! Much aloha, Christin and Cary Matsushige
