“ Something made me think of Padodo this week so I decided to Google him and unfortunately found his obituary. I actually dated him back in 1971-72 timeframe and he could always make you laugh. He loved to dance and was always a gentleman. May God be with his family, friends and loved ones.

“ Many Memories I have gone thru with Robert Jr (Bob) Padodo since our hanabuda days. Hi will be well missed not only from me but also from my ohana. (Da Martin's from Maui) who really looked up to him! We were fortunate to have spend time with him in August along with his girlfriend, youngest daughter and her ohana. Padodo was my newpew but more like a brother to me in his quiet ways. We will surely miss you boy but we know you're still with us spiritually we will always remember you.

Love and Aloha Frenda and Da Ohana

For the California gang and Padodo's friends we are celebrating his life on March 15,2014

Amber has the info regarding this celebration

“ Robert and I were part of a Hawaii group That went to Navy boot camp in San Diego, back in Nov 1968. I remember him as the typical happy go lucky local boy. We both served in Vietnam. My best wished to you his family. His candle may be out, but his light lives on in you all. Pls call if I can help in any way.

Hi Frank,

*This is Robert's youngest daughter (Amber). Thank you so much for your condolences, I'm so happy to know that Daddy had good friends with him through those rough times. I sent you an email with contact information and also information on the future services we plan to have for Daddy. Thank you again
